

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

RICKY LANG,

Defendant.

ORDER

13-cr-119-wmc

A hearing was held today on the court's order for issuance of summons to consider revocation of the defendant's probationary period pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3583(1). Plaintiff appeared by Assistant United States Attorney Julie Pfuger; defendant appeared in person and by Attorney David Geier.

At the hearing, it became apparent that there are disputed issues of fact relating to the government's assertion that the defendant committed additional acts of fraud in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 287. In addition, because of the general nature of the notice of non-compliance with the terms of probation, and because of the relatively recent appointment of defense counsel, Attorney Geier requested additional time to prepare. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED THAT: (1) the government shall promptly turn over to defense counsel all evidentiary materials, including any witness statement, related to its claim of alleged violations of defendant's first condition of probation (not to commit another federal, state, or local crime); and (2) an evidentiary hearing on the government's request for revocation based on their proffer today is rescheduled for Friday, February 20, 2015, at 9:00 a.m.

Entered this 13th day of February, 2015.
